

AustCham is seeking volunteers for our monthly school visits where we teach English at schools in Chonburi and Rayong (no teaching experience required). Would you, or preferably you and your family, come and help AustCham in this very rewarding community service? If you can spare one Saturday (per year) and would be interested then contact: Martin Kyle, Executive Director AustCham Thailand. ## Wat Pra Prathanporn School Visit on 24 May, 2008

This was the Chamber's second visit to this government school in Sri Racha which has recently been added to the list of schools which the AustCham teaching volunteers visit. There was no shortage of enthusiastic students or for that matter volunteers. As usual, everybody joined in the activities including playing games and singing a song with the children, followed by a handout of milk and wafers to all the children.

Member Get Member

AustCham has a scheme for members to introduce new members. If a new member is recruited, the existing member will receive three lunch tickets and three Sundowners tickets which, at non-member prices, have a value of around Baht 5,000.

So now you can help friends and colleagues reap the benefits of joining AustCham and be recognised for your help in expanding the AustCham community!

The tickets will be given to the introducing member – evidenced by that member being recorded in the new membership application as the first named referee.

Each existing member may receive these reward tickets for up to three new members in any one membership year.

Aust Alumni Night at Nai Lert Park on 14 May 2008

Our third Alumni networking function for Thai students who graduated from Australian institutions was held at the Swissotel Nai Lert Park Hotel on 14 May, generously sponsored by Genius Graphic and Baker Tilly (Thailand). Nearly 100 attendees including 65 alumni attended our networking night in a warm and comfortable atmosphere at the Syn Bar. Thanks also go to our guest speaker, Khun Pichai Chuensuksawadi, Chief Editor of the Bangkok Post and also an Australian alumnus. We hope that our Alumni networking nights will evolve into a forum where Thai graduates from Australian institutions can network and develop professionally, whilst contributing to Australian-Thai relations. Many attendees took advantage of the opportunity to join the Chamber's one year complimentary membership program for alumni.
